The Kanata Theatre Group was formed some months ago "to further interest in the theatre, and for the enjoyment of its members". We hold regular meetings for exploring various aspects of the theatre. If you are interested, you can obtain further information from Mary Mauger (836-4886) or Dewi Williams (836-4108).

This evening we have two Workshop Productions for your enjoyment. The idea of a workshop is to put people in unfamiliar roles so that they will learn as much as possible; thus, several of our players are on stage for the first time.

Mary Mauger is new to the job of directing, but has had considerable experience in theatre with Thistle-town Players in Toronto and with groups in the United Kingdom. The director of our second play, Laurence Thornton, has been active in the theatre since his childhood and has acted with many little theatre groups. Mr. Thornton previously directed at Queen's University.
