

Kanata Theatre to hold studio productions

Kanata Theatre will present three one-act plays at Stephen Leacock School, Saturday April 12th at 8 p.m. Although the main purpose of the Studio productions is to train novice directors and novice performers, they provide an enjoyable evening's entertainment. Admission is free and all interested friends are invited to attend.

Bob Knight will direct the short tragedy, "Hello Out There" by William Saroyan. His cast consists of Barrie Kirk; Diana Fajrajal; Bob Horsey; Ann Dubras and Bob Knight.

Edward Albee's satirical sketch, "The Sandbox", will be directed by Helen Hunter. In her cast are Ian Robertson; Ann Dubras; John Gilliland; Rosemary Scott and Liane Freedman.

Brian McLaughlin, a student member of Kanata

Theatre, will direct the light one-act comedy "Nero Fiddles" by John Healy. In his cast are Ann Hopper; Linda Schneider; Richard Schneider; Wendi Holland; Bev Shedd; Sian Williams; Anne Hutchison and Bob Belsey.
