

Kanata Theatre

by Bob Kulight

As a contribution to the Winter Carnival there will be a presentation of THE TALE OF THE RED DRAGON for the entertainment of children on February 18 and 19, 9th performances at 1:30 and 3:30 pm (admission 25 cents, Earl of March). This play is under the direction of Rosemary Scott and Dan Siemieniuk. Members of the cast are Rosemarie Lawless, Rosemary Keneford, Kathy McEachran, John Gilliland, Cathy Tays, Elsie Levant, Joan McLaughlin and Jenny Haynes.

Rehearsals are well underway for the third major production of the season, MURDER ONCE REMOVED, to be performed March 1 to 4, under the direction of Peter Jefferson. Gwen Knight and Carl Anthony are cast in the roles performed by Barbara Bain and John Forsythe in the television version as presented on "The New CBS Friday Night Movies". Others in the cast are Jim Ritchie, Pat Keneford, Murray Hayes, Steve Kadolph and Bob Kulight. For ticket information phone the Box Office at 592-1715.

Kanata Theatre presents

Murder Once Removed, a gripping mystery written by Irving Gayner. Neimath, directed by Peter Jefferson.

For further information call: 592-1715 — Mon to Fri, 1:30 to 4:30 pm.

March 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th at the Earl of March High School, Kanata. Curtain Time: 8 pm.

Tickets: Adults $3.00 and $2.00; Senior Citizens and Students — half price.

This is the stage adaptation of a play which may be familiar to viewers of "The New CBS Friday Night Movies" on which it was presented in 1971 with Barbara Bain and John Forsythe in the lead roles. We expect that the story line will hold the audience right up to the final clever twist of this unexpected denouement.

Cast:
Dr. Ronald Cato — Carl Anthony
Lass Manning — Gwen Knight
Walter Manning — Jim Ritchie
Nurse Emily Regis — Pat Keneford
Sgt. Phil Proctor — Bob Kulight
Fred Kramer — Murray Hayes
Officer Charlie Tate — Steve Kadolph
