

Kanata Theatre

1984

Sixteenth Season

1985

16

Ira Levin's domestic comedy of the caustic theatre critic whose wife turns playwright.

To quote the play itself:-

"Warm, vibrant, and thoroughly satisfying from first to last"

OCTOBER 24-27, 1984

All the ingredients of a typical Ray Cooney and John Chapman farce. A family wedding with the family full of comedy characters, plus the ghost of a flapper to tempt the affections of the father of the bride.

JANUARY 16-19, 1985

Cause Célèbre

Terence Rattigan's dramatic reconstruction of the crime and trial of an actual murder of the 1930's

FEBRUARY 27, 28 & MARCH 1,2, 1985

A fast, furious, farce featuring femme fatale and friends.

Another play by John Chapman, assisted this time by Dave Freeman.

MAY 8-11, 1985

PLEASE NOTE!
the performance dates for CAUSE CELEBRE
have been changed from March 6, 7, 8, 9 to
FEBRUARY 27, 28 and MARCH 1, 2.