Students must be mean

Come visit the S.S.W.W. - the Seary School for Wicked Witches, where the ideal student must be "skinny and mean, scraggy and lean, toothless, ruthless, and just about as loathsome as can be."

Kanata Theatre trembles as it presents Beth McMaster's scary musical play, "Which Witch is Which?" for children age 1 to 101 who enjoy being frightened by such things as mice, bats, frogs, spiders, cobwebs, but most of all by cackling wicked witches!

Fun, fear and fantasy are guaranteed as the characters repeatedly ask the audience to help them out by singing along with them, in order to break bad spells cast upon them.

At the same time, Kanata Theatre has a special request at this festive time of year. They ask that their audiences who attend this production donate a Christmas gift for a child not quite as fortunate as their own. These toys should be given to one of the witches or persons at Front-of-House prior to, or after the performance, and will be distributed in plenty of time to bring a smile to a needy child this Christmas.

Performance times for "Which Witch is Which?" are: Friday Nov. 22 at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 23 at 2:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. and Sunday Nov. 24 at 2:00 p.m. in the Earl of March Auditorium. Tickets are $1 available at the door.

Sitting: Kelly Hamilton and L. to R. Beverly Wilkinson, Bob Horsey and Ann Horsey, as witches.

Kanata Theatre

"Thank you"

Approximately 1,200 men, women and children dutifully spent a very "witchy weekend" in Kanata last week at the Children's Special production, "Which Witch is Which?"

Kanata Theatre especially appreciates the overwhelming and generous response by its audiences to their request for Christmas toy donations for needy children in the Ottawa area.

No less than five bulging sacks full of super toys have now been forwarded on to the Ottawa-Carleton Immigrant Services Organization, where they will be distributed to Salvadorian, Ethiopian, Vietnamese and Polish refugee children attending a special Christmas party on December 15. These gifts will help to make Christmas a little happier for these children, and on their behalf Kanata Theatre extends a very big "Thank you" to the audience.

Meanwhile the show must go on. "Enter Laughing", Joseph Stern's side-splitting comedy about a young Jewish boy living in New York who has great aspirations of becoming an actor, while his very orthodox parents have other ideas, is now well into rehearsal. Brooke Keneford directs an excellent cast: Stewart Wheeler, Dorothy Gardner, Pat Carroll, Kristen Gaudier, Brian McCulloch, Lane Freedman, Jim Holmes, Mike Kearns, Bonnie Curtin, Bob Knight, Duffy John Acheson, Ted Mauger and Brenda Godin. More details about this show will be published later, but it is advisable to call the Box Office early for reservations, particularly if Friday or Saturday evening tickets are required. The show will run January 15-18 1986.

The "Come! Laugh With Us" season continues as the third major play of the season, the infamous "Charles's Aunt" by Brandon Thomas is soon to be cast. Jim Holmes will direct, and is holding auditions for this production on Sunday evening, December 1, 8:00 p.m. at the Beaverbrook Community Centre. With a cast of 10 people, the play requires 3 young men and 1 play requires 1 young woman and 1 older man and one older woman. Anyone who is interested in reading for a part is welcome to come along, and should Sunday evening be impossible for you, please feel free to contact Jim Holmes at 592-1079 when alternative arrangements can be made. Charles's Aunt opens February 26 1986 and runs through March 1st.

For ticket reservations and information regarding the 1985-86 Season, please call Kanata Theatre Box Office at 592-1715.

Kanata Theatre presents magical comedy

Kanata Theatre will be presenting Beth McMaster's magical comedy, "Which Witch is Which?" at the Earl of March auditorium later this month.

Performance dates are Friday, November 22 at 7:30 PM; Saturday, November 23 at 2:00 and 7:30 PM; and Sunday, November 24 at 2:00 PM. Music, magic and laughter are guaranteed for children of all ages.

Director of the production is Laurence Thornton and tickets are $1 and will be available at the door.

Kanata Theatre is also making a very special request to its audiences attending this children's production. Christmas is drawing near and there are many children in the Ottawa-Carleton area who are not so fortunate as our own.

When you bring your children to see this magical production, perhaps you would bring a little magic to a needy child too, by giving a Christmas-wrapped toy to one of the many witches or front-of-house people in the foyer of the school before the production. By marking the suitable age group and "boy" or "girl" on the wrapper will help in the distribution of the toys.

Your generosity will be greatly appreciated by these children this Christmas.

For further information call the Kanata Theatre Box Office at 592-1715.
