

TICKET POLICY

We guarantee the renewal of the same seats if the application for renewal is received by July 31st.

Applications for changed seats will be given priority over new applications until July 31st.

Subject to the above rules, applications are treated on a "first come, first served" basis.

Season ticket holders may exchange their tickets for another performance of the same play at no charge provided that the Box Office (829-1138) is notified at least 24 hours before the earlier performance.

Season ticket holders who are unable to use or give away their tickets are asked to advise the Box Office (829-1138).

We regret that all tickets are non-refundable

LOST IN YONKERS

BY NEIL SIMON

This 1991 Pulitzer Prize winning play for Drama by America's greatest comic playwright is about another battling "odd couple" - this time an elderly mother and her 35 year old daughter.

"Laughter and tears have come together in a new emotional truth. There are moments in this play when you experience a new kind of laughter for Simon, a silent laughter that doesn't explode into a yuk but implodes straight into your heart." - Newsweek

October 26th to 29th, 1994

THE HEIDI CHRONICLES

BY
WENDY WASSERSTEIN

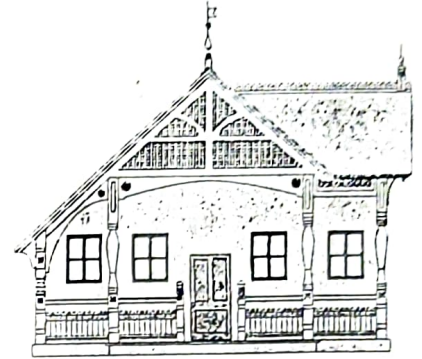

The Heidi Chronicles won Wendy Wasserstein the 1989 Tony award for Best Play and the 1989 Pulitzer Prize for Drama. Heidi is a serious, good person, a brilliant feminist art historian trying to keep her bearings and her sense of humor on the elevator ride from the radical sixties to the heartless eighties. Both mirthful and touching, it is a play of our time, for our time and one that in many ways, defines our time.

January 18th to 21st, 1995

THE MELVILLE BOYS

BY
NORM FOSTER

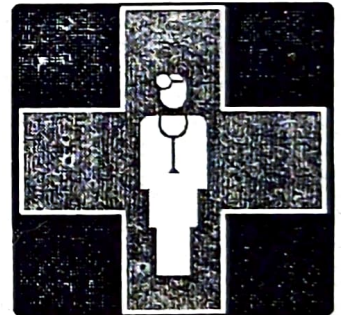

Lee and Owen plan to spend a quiet weekend of beer and fishing at their uncle's lakeside cottage. The unexpected arrival of Mary and Loretta results in a very funny, tender and unsentimental look at four lives in transition.

March 1st to 4th, 1995

IT RUNS IN THE FAMILY

BY RAY COONEY

Britain's master of farce is at it again! Set in a hospital, It Runs in the Family contains the usual assortment of farcical nutcases running in and out of doors, mistaking everyone for somebody else. As in every good farce, the location becomes a madhouse filled with an epidemic of unbridled lunacy.
